Thomas Hobbs^{1-2, 9-10} was employed as a High School Teacher, Harriston, ON paid $1300 in 1910 in 1911.

Notes for Thomas Hobbs:

On Sept 24 2012 I called the Harriston Historical Society to see if they might be able to provide clues on what became of the family? I spoke to Mary Jean Hartwig. She immediately knew Thomas Hobbs - Timmy she called him. He was "a legend" in Harriston for the work he did at the High School. There is a photo of students of University of Toronto in 1922 and 13 of the students are from Harriston, one of the 13 is Dr Jean Burrows (an Aunt of Mary Jean).

Mary Jean says she will send me the photo and will look to see what else she can find. She noted that the Hobbs lived on Pellister Street - she knows that because she knows the people that live in the house now.

Alice Maud Mary Gibson⁴⁰ was also known as Maude.

The Past is Simply a Beginning, book on Peterborough Doctors, by John W Martyn. M E Hobbs, was born in Oakville, Ovtober 5, 1907 and gradulatd from U of T in 1932. He interned at St. Michaels's Hospital, Toronto. In 1937 he ansered Dr Turner's ad on the Canadian Doctor and came to Millbrooke that year. Shortly he was proacticing on his own and living at 25 Tupper Street. In the 19030's and 40's the time to visit the doctor was in the evening, on Saturday and Sunday. It was "first come fist serve" and while this was often looked on as a social occasion, there was an inordinate amount of wasred time for patients and the doctor. Dr Hobbs est'd appt times and tried to keep evenings and Sunday free. After the initial shock people began to appreciate the arrangement....Dr Hobbs served actively on the hospital committees in Peterb' and was Pres of the County Medical Society in 1962. In 1972 as hge was approaching retirement he was instrumental in obtaining a gov't grant which, with the support of the Lions Club and citizens of the area, allowed the construction of The Millbrooke Medical Centre.
